Re: SEC v. Stilwell, et al., 13-cv-3437 (HB)

Judge Baer:

Plaintiff Securities and Exchange Commission ("Commission") hereby respectfully requests permission to file, through one of its attorneys and in lieu of satisfactions executed by the United States Attorney as specified in Local Civil Rule 54.3(c)<sup>1</sup>, satisfactions of monetary judgments in regard to each defendant in the above referenced case. Commission records indicate that full payment has been received by or for the ultimate credit to the United States Treasury from each of John Anthony Stilwell, Dr. Michael Curtis Moore, and Jillian Margaret Murphy in accordance with the terms of the final judgments entered by the Court on August 7, 2013 (docket numbers 8, 9, and 10).

The Commission further respectfully requests that the Court grant permission to the Clerk to enter such satisfactions of monetary judgment once filed by the Commission. Attorneys for Defendants have informed the undersigned that they agree with the contents of this letter and join in the Commission's request. Please let me know if you have any questions or require any additional information.

Respectfully submitted,
